

THE ITALIAN GENERAL ELECTION

OF 4 MARCH 2018

Università di Urbino Carlo Bo - Aula 1, Scuola di Scienze politiche e sociali - Piazza Gherardi 4

PROGRAMME

THURSDAY 5 JULY

- 14:30 Welcome and introduction Ilvo Diamanti
- 15:00 – 16:30 THE CONTEXT
- The political context 2013 – 2018
James L. Newell - University of Salford
- The economic context
Michele Capriati - University of Bari
- The EU and international contexts
Maria Giulia Amadio, Raffaele Marchetti
LUISS Guido Carli
- Discussant Arianna Giovannini - De Montfort University
- 16:30 – 17:30 Coffee Break
- 17:30 – 19:00 THE RUN-UP TO THE ELECTION
- The parties of the left and centre left
Paolo Natale - University of Milan
- The parties of the centre right
Giorgia Bulli - University of Florence
- The Five-star Movement
Fabio Bordignon, Luigi Ceccarini
University of Urbino Carlo Bo
- Discussant Davide Vampa - Aston University

FRIDAY 6 JULY

- 9:00 – 10:30 THE CAMPAIGN
- Campaign issues and themes
Marco Valbruzzi - University of Bologna
- The campaign in the media
Cristina Cremonesi, Franca Roncarolo
University of Turin
- The campaign and the new technologies
Cristopher Cepernich - University of Turin
- Discussant Antonella Seddone - Catholic University of Lille and University of Turin
- 10:30 – 11:30 Coffee Break
- 11:30-13:00 THE OUTCOME
- Italian voters
Alessandro Chiamonte - University of Florence
Aldo Paparo - LUISS Guido Carli
- The parliamentary scene following the 2018 elections
Bruno Marino, Nicola Martocchia, Luca Verzichelli
University of Siena
- The formation of the new government
Gianfranco Pasquino - Johns Hopkins University
- Discussant David Broder - London School of Economics
Laura Polverari - Strathclyde University
- 13:00 Concluding remarks Luigi Ceccarini, James L. Newell